

Some of them are criminals.

They will receive more money than poor and homeless people in Austria.

They will mix with us.

They might become our political leaders one day.

They need space but Austria is a small country.

The state has to provide a home for them.