Greek are more funny

In Greece all the work was shared with many Erasmus teachers and it didn't weight only on the coordinator or on few people. Greek students had better ability in speaking English. The students who sang, played the songs and danced were well prepared. The flash mob has been a fantastic idea to disseminate the project.

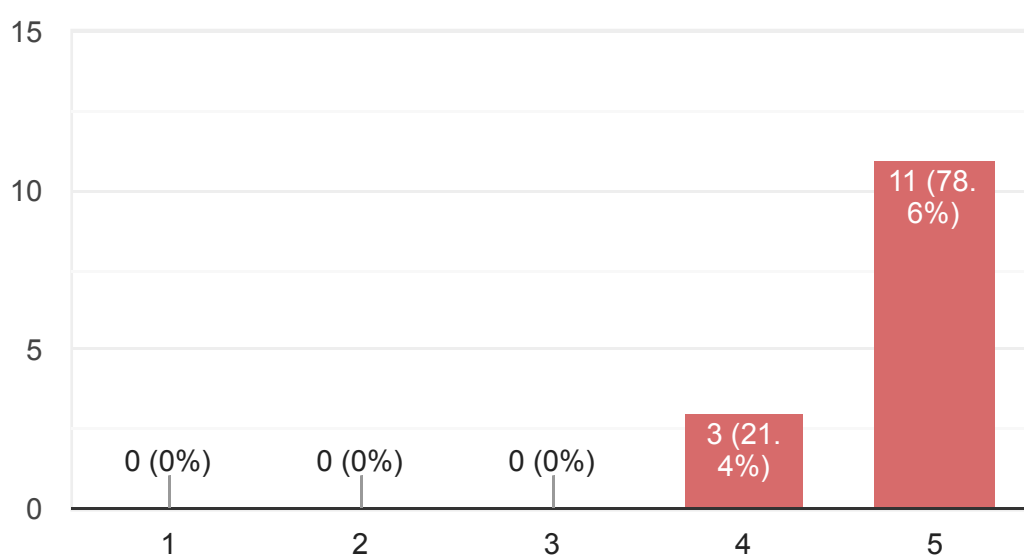

Greek students have their brakes in a large jard, Italian students aren't allowed to leave their classroom

In Greece there is a different school for students with spécial needs

The Greek school has a large theatre for all the activities

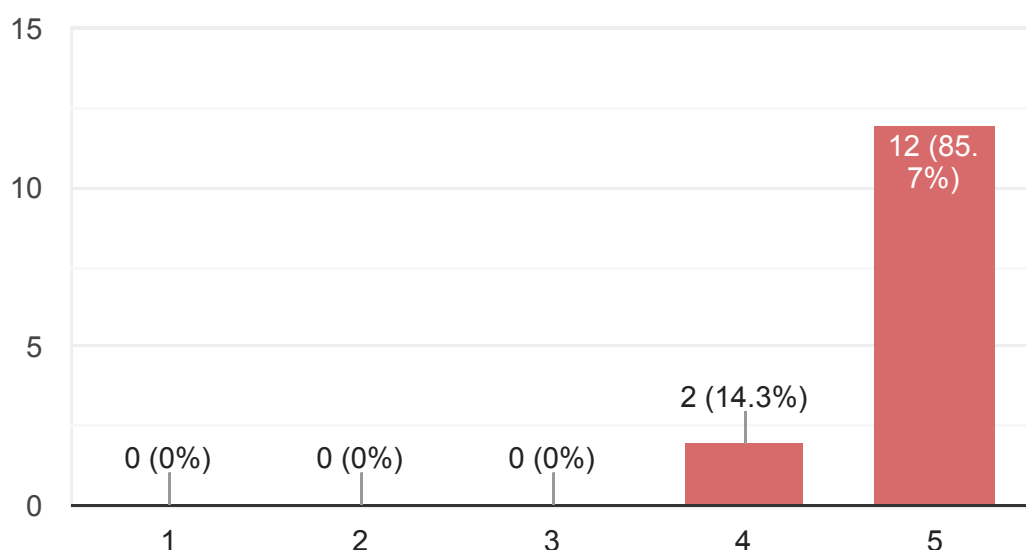

14. I believe that our Erasmus + project has motivated me to exchange good practices and improve my day-to-day teaching

16. Please name the three aspects of the mobility trip you liked most and least

7 responses

The trip was very long, early and necessary

Most: exchanges and communication between students, cultural visits

POSITIVE ASPECTS: Students interacting, cultural visits, teachers and families kindness and generosity.

NEGATIVE ASPECTS: -----

I liked most the flash mob, the cultural visits, the long walkings to school. I liked least the pupils party because there were too many people in the room. Sometimes the behaviour of some students in the hotel hasn't been correct.

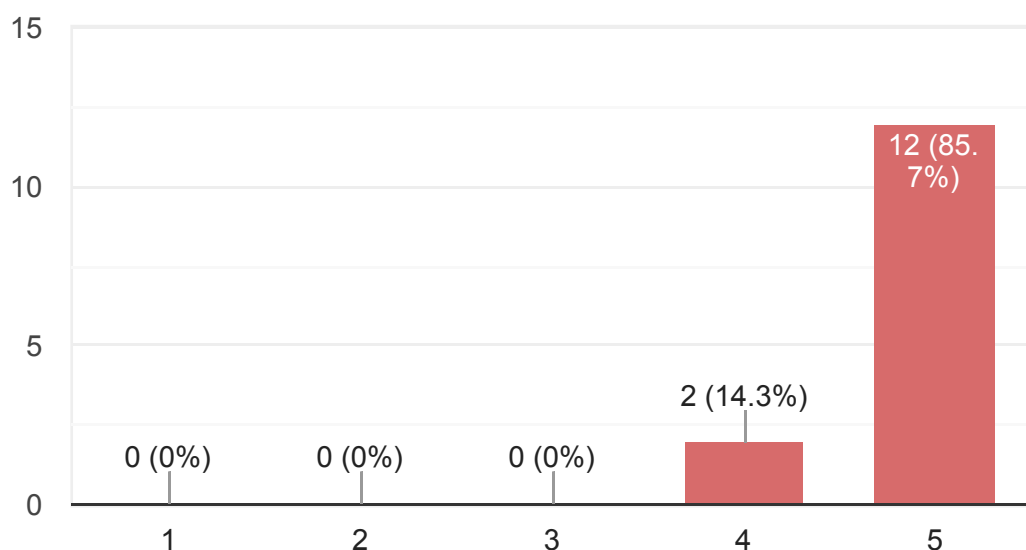

Flash mob. Olympic games. Rehearsals. Sometimes some students hadn't an appropriate behaviour

Sharing of the work, cultural visits and the flash mob

Welcoming from teachers, Salonico, flash mob. Everything was very good

17. After this experience, I would recommend other colleagues to take part in Erasmus + projects

18. What would you do differently in the next mobility trip hosted in your country?

6 responses

The fakily Party and teacher meeting

More Guided cultural visits

I'd probably change the meals and the restaurants, cultural Visits (include a guide)

I would organize a students party just with students of the three countries, no people from outside school.

Less walking

A party for students only no stranger people

19. If there are any aspects about this exchange or our project you would like to comment on, please do so now

The hosting teachers were very kind, helpfull, generous and did many afferts to make us feel at our easy. The mobilities to Spain and Greece were high quality level and it will be difficult to even up to that level in Italy, but we'll do our best to reach a good quality level.
