Dear diary,

I just joined the Lotta Svärd organisation, I'm so excited to help white Finland. My brother joined the army last week, I can't wait to see him again! In the picture, you can see him on the top right, I'm so proud of him.

Dear diary,

We won! Everyone's celebrating, but I don't get why. Yesterday I got the news my brother died, I still don't believe it. We saw so much grief and pain, we took care of so many wounded soldiers that we don't even care about the winner. In the end, everyone lost.
