

DREAM A LITTLE DREAM

Girl Power

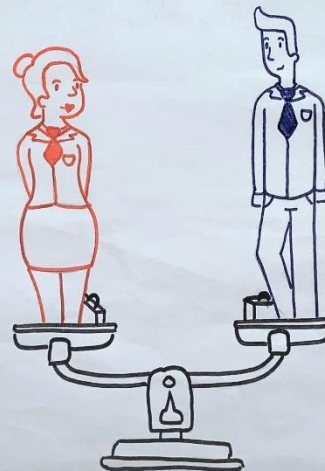

GIRL POWER

We are scared that in the future the levels of domestic violence will increase, or stay as they are.

We are also afraid the women's role in our society keep being underestimated, and the difference between both women and men's earnings remain huge.

In our future we want to keep a balance between the roles of women and men in our society and the same rights and duties.

Lately there has been an increase of gender equality, but there's still a lot of work to do if we want a fair, good and equivalent future to both men and women.
