

Christmas in Croatia

Christmas in Croatia is spectacular in every way. Here are some pictures of Croatia's famous landmarks decorated in Christmas decorations.

On Christmas Day
Croatians
traditionally prepare
turkey, lamb, roasted
pig, sarma (minced
meat wrapped in cabbage), peppers
stuffed with minced meat, salads, freshly baked bread and traditional Christmas deserts such as fritule (pastry resembling doughnuts), strudel, walnut and poppy-seed cakes and many, many more delights.

Traditionally, there is always a generous supply of dried fruits, honey and nuts in Croatian homes during the festive period. If you have a chance to spend a Christmas in Croatia, one thing is for certain, you won't go hungry!
