

GENDER ROLES IN SCIENCE

EDUCATION CONCEPT

Usually the science atmosphere has been dominated by men. Because of this, there are many women who haven't been recognized. Even, there exist suspicions of men who took over the work of their wives.

For this, you probably do not know these women.

MARIE CURIE

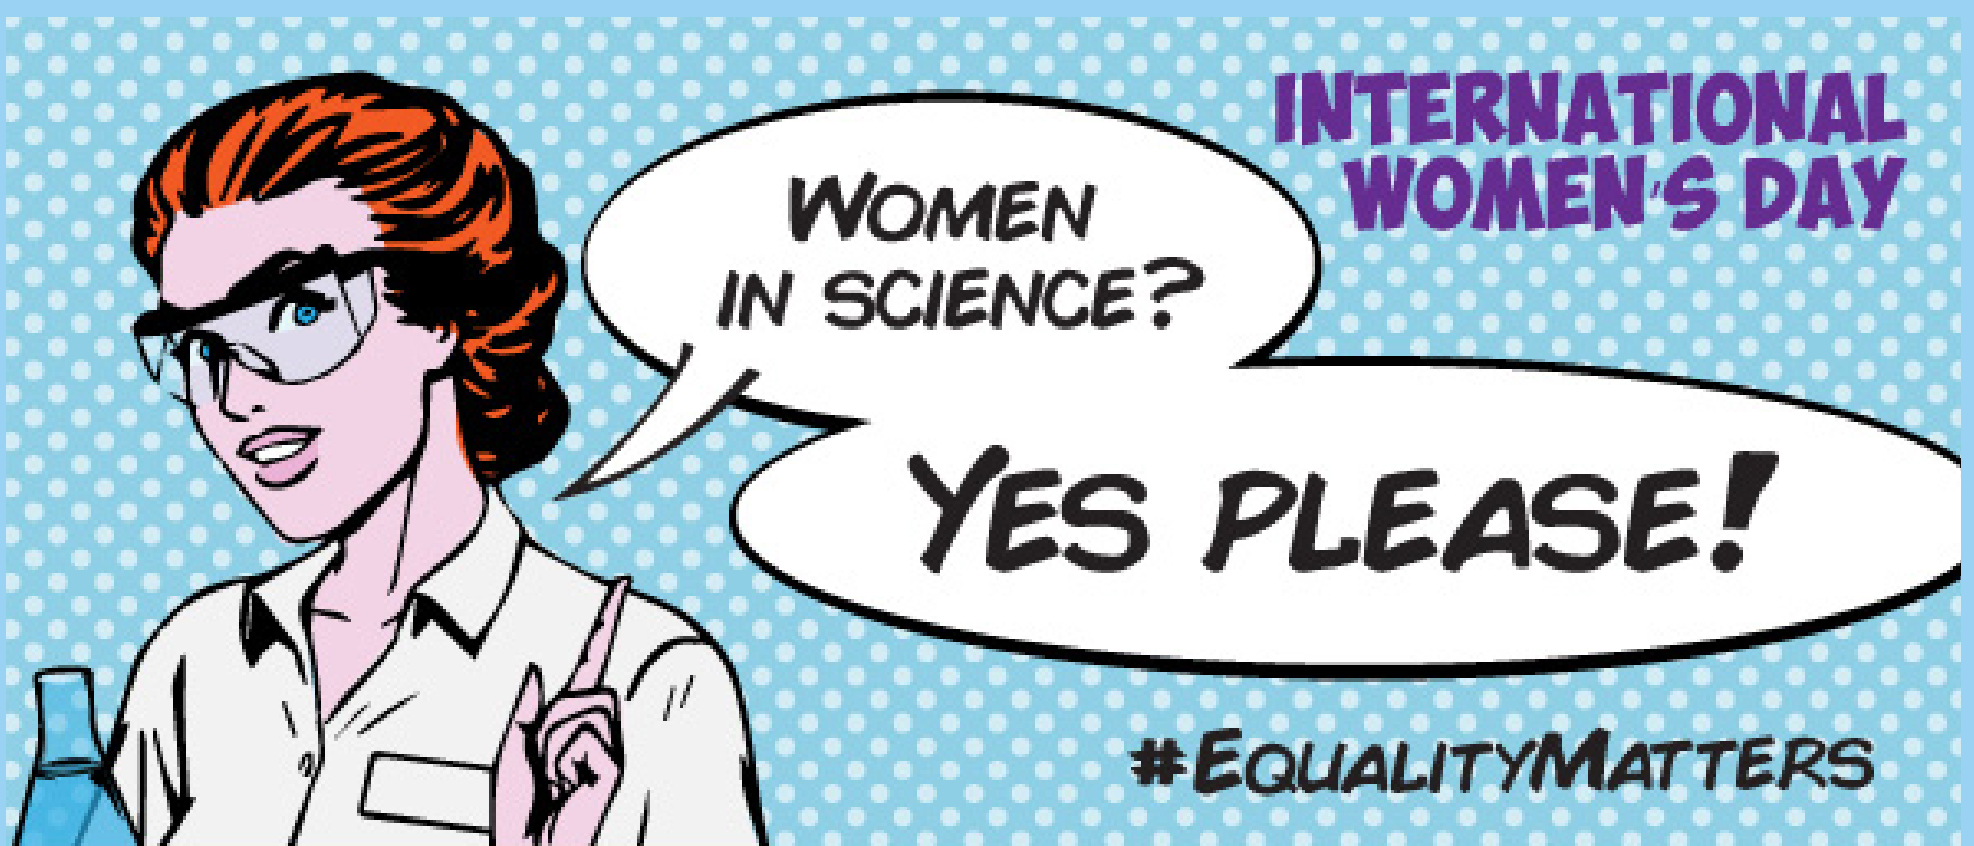

ELIZABETH BLACKBURN

ROSALIND FRANKLIN

These women have made important discoveries like the radioactive, the structures of DNA, the structures of viruses and carbon...but they haven't been so recognized like scientist men.
