

Royal Castle in Warsaw

The Royal Castle in Warsaw was first a residence of princes of Mazovia, and later the residence of the kings of Poland, the parliament and the senate.

In the past the Castle was repeatedly invaded, robbed and damaged by different armies. Today it is a museum.

Questions

1. What happened to the Royal Castle during the Second World War? (2p.)
2. What is the name of the river near the Castle? (1p.)
3. Who is standing on the column in front of the Castle? (1p.)
Why was he commemorated this way? (1p.)

