

Fryderyk Chopin

(1810-1849)

Fryderyk Chopin was a great Polish romantic composer. He was also a brilliant pianist. He wrote music for the piano or piano with orchestra. Chopin was a great patriot and his poetic music was inspired by Polish folk music.

Question:

1. What happened to the heart of Chopin after his death? (2p.)
2. In Warsaw every 5 years there is an important cultural event named after Fryderyk Chopin. What is this event? (2p.)
3. Listen to eight pieces of music. Four of them are by Chopin. Which numbers are they? (4p.)

A handwritten signature of Fryderyk Chopin in black ink. The signature is highly stylized and cursive, with the name 'Chopin' written in a fluid, overlapping script.