Plan of the lesson:

1. Students watch a presentation of Romania, with all its regions and with the different traditional costumes that are particular to each region.
2. Students watch three different traditional dances to get acquainted with how traditional Romanian dances are.
3. Teacher and Romanian students demonstrate how a very easy traditional Romanian dance is danced and then they invite all the students to learn so that at the end of the lesson all of them can dance together.

Comments:

This lesson has been carried out during transnational learning meetings in Finland, Poland, Greece and Portugal.
