

Students' awareness of e-Safety & Netiquette
LISTEN AND PLACE THE SONG LINES TO THE CORRECT PLACE

"Who do you share your details with?"

We've got some headlines for you guys	Too many photos on you wall
	You share your number, name and address
Don't know what for	Everyone else knows your details
	You're insecure
	Everyone else in the world can see you
Out to people that you've never met
Chorus:
Do you know what you're sharing and who can see?	All your friends sharing your information secretly.
	Don't share your number or tell them where you live
	Who do you share your details with?
You don't know
	Tell someone else
Show what you're reading	They're there to help
	Tell a parent, a teacher

Students' awareness of e-Safety & Netiquette

Unless you know them
	Are just strangers
/: Who do you share your details with? :/	Don't reveal things about yourself
Listen to us	You don't know
	Don't believe
All that you read	Friends met online
	Without thinking of the dangers
Trying to hack your newsfeed	It could be spamhaus
	Keep their profiles private
Don't give your info
And Oh, something personal
You should hide it
All those smart kids
Chorus:

Students' awareness of e-Safety & Netiquette

Discuss in groups and with your teacher:

1. What social networks do you use?
2. Who can see your statuses?
3. Who can see your personal information?
4. Can social networks be useful?
How?
5. Can social networks be dangerous?
How?
6. Do unknown people contact you?
7. Are you social-network smart?
8. Have you ever done anything online that was not safe?
9. Say what rules of Internet safety are violated in the pictures below.

posting compromising info

telling online you aren't at home

Internet bullying

sharing your photos

Internet blackmailing

people are not who they say they are