

Some facts about Germany

By students from Ukraine Eva Petrovska and Veronika Polishchuk

Hanover. Germany.

- The city of Hanover is located center of Germany.
- Length of the river is 281km.
- The city has many attractions.
- The tallest building in Hanover is "Telemax Tower", which is 892ft.
- Fachwerkhaus in Burgstraße 12 is the oldest house in Hanover.
- TELEMEX TOWER.

Hanover. Schools and universities

- There are many schools and universities in Hanover.
- For example, the Hotfried University of Hanover city.
- The largest school is "IGS Roderbrush".

Hanover. Popular shops in Hanover.

- Galeria Kaufhof is the most popular shop in the city.
- You can buy: Damenmode, Herrenmode, Technik, Wohnen, Taschen & Koffer, Uhren & Schmuck, Beauty etc.

Hanover. Parks, gardens.

- The largest park is called "Herrenhausen Gardens"
- The Great Garden has always been one of the most distinguished Baroque gardens of Europe while the Berggarten has been transformed over the years from a simple vegetable garden into a large botanical garden with its own attractions.

Germany. National cuisine.

- National cuisine of Germany is very diverse known for Such dishes as: grilled sausades, cabbage stewed with ribs and various types, but students enjoy eating burgers, chips and drink Coca Cola.

Germany. Munich.

- Another big city in Germany is Munich, which buildings are ancient. There are many museums and churches.
- In Munich there is a clock tower which is called "Rathaus-Glockenspiel".

Munich photo

- Our teacher of English Mrs Yulia Troyan was in Munich in 2017. She told us about this city and showed some photos.

Germany. Sport.

- The Germans take care of their health. They go in for different kinds of sport, but the most popular sport is football.

- Popular football players are Franz Beckenbauer, Manuel Neuer, Gerd Müller, Mesut Ozil, Karl-Heinz Rummenigge etc.

We dream of visiting.
This wonderful country one day

