

Advent calendar

The Advents calendar has 24 little doors. You open every day one, from 1st to 24th December. The Advents calendar is a preparation for Christmas. Every day is a different surprise in the calendar, at the 24th is often the biggest surprise. There are many different calendars for little and old people e.g chocolate or figurs for children.

CHRISTMAS TREE IN DORTMUND

The christmas tree in Dortmund is 45m high!

The tree is very cool!

It has a record, because it is the highest Christmas tree in the whole world.

One month before the Christmas Market the tree will begin to build.

This weight is 40.000 kg.

The tree has 1700 European spruces in it.

The idea for the tree is from Werner Basselmann.

Christmas tree

Most people have a Christmas tree, their Christmas tree is decorated with colorful ornaments or other decoration e.g. loops, stars, candles. The most ornaments are in many different colors: red, blue, gold or pink...! People have Christmas trees since 500 years. The tree has a special meaning - for a new life and candles for hope.

Christmas Food in Germany

In Germany, we are eating usually a goose, with gravy and vegetables. Other ways we are eating sausages with a salad of mashed potatoes and tomatoes.

There is a story about that. In middle age the people didn't have much time, because they were in the church at christmas. And then they had to make their food fast and you can prepare sausages with mashed potatoes very fast. Many people in Germany are eating roast pork with gravy.
