

Parcours théâtre en partenariat avec le théâtre de la Filature de Mulhouse: January-March May 2018

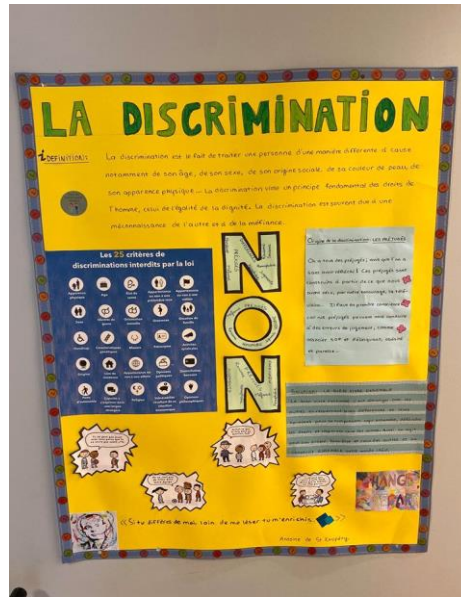

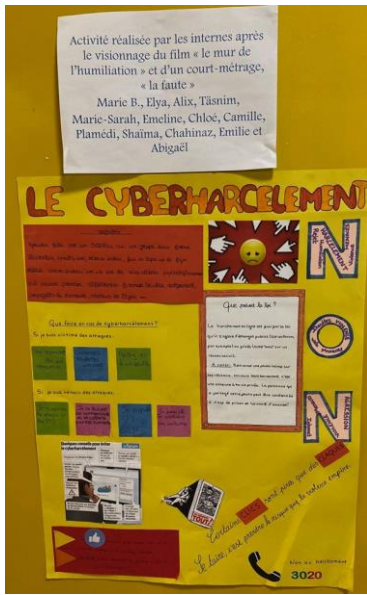

- Presentation of the collaboration by the director and the actors to the students
- show of the play "Soeurs d'Armes" at school about bullying at school on Tuesday 5th March. Talk about the play after the performance
- Tuesday 12th March 2019: the students work in workshops with a dancer and an actress about expressing themselves. They must write a story that happened to them and that touched them, alone and then write a story together and finally stage it and show it to the others;
- Friday 3rd May: presentation of their work by the students at the theatre in Mulhouse in front of parents, teachers, officials
- Thursday 23rd May: : Portrait de Ludmilla en Nina Simone: songs about this lady who fought against racism à la Filature de Mulhouse, par la Comédie de Caen

September 2019

The boarders after watching a film make posters about bullying.

5th October: présentation of the Erasmus+ projects by our Principal Miss Thomann-Rémond and our librarian Miss Munck, librarian during the reception for the 200th anniversary of the sisters of Ribeauvillé

Wednesday 13th November the students of the 5th class met Amandine Urbani, Miss Curvy for the Haut Rhin and they talked about bullying

Monday 25th November

Michel Turk about the Malgré-Nous, people who were forced to work for the Nazis during World War 2, being Alsatian

Tuesday 17th December: International Day for the disabled persons

Some activities were organized in the corridors of the school to make the students realize what it is to be disabled.

Posters for "Tolerance Day"

They were hung in the space devoted to relaxing in the school

Collect of toys for l'Association Espoir de Colmar- Novembre 2019

Tuesday 08/01/2020: for the students of the 3ed class, partnership with the théâtre de la Filature de Mulhouse about migrations

Presentation by la Cimade (La Cimade is an association that provides support to the refugees and migrants) and a game "Mon parcours du Migrant" to make the students realize the difficulties that the migrants have to face

Le mercredi 15 janvier

Performance of the play: La vallée, written and directed by Paul Schirck.
Discussions with the actors and director.

A conference by a person implicated in the support to refugees in the valley "La Roja" between France and Italy.

Le vendredi 17 janvier

Theatre workshop with professionals about a play "Inoxydables"

Le mercredi 22 janvier

Artistic workshop with the artist Simon Welch for the students of 5th class about sexism and for the students of the 4th class about racism. Posters about the topics made by the students.

Le lundi 27 janvier

Theatre workshop for the 3rd classes Paul Schirk.

