

5 Rules to be safe on the internet

1. Use strong passwords

2. Enable multi-factor authentications on your accounts

3. Review what information is public on your social media accounts

4. Never give personal information to someone you met online

5. Avoid clicking on sites that look fake or scammy