e-Evaluation

(SurveyMonkey.com)

or Google forms

paper form evaluation

Why e-Evaluation?

- Faster (two thirds shorter time)
- Save money (such as printing costs)
- Quick to analyze (data presented in graphs or tables, instantly available)

Why Google Forms?

- Create Unlimited Free Forms (variety of question types, variety of themes)
- Extremely easy to use
- Results Can Go Directly Into a Shareable Spreadsheet
 - ✓ share both the editing of the forms and the results with co-workers

Why Google Forms?

- Email Notification of Results (either with each response or in a daily batch)
- Mobile-Friendly (any simple browser on any device)

The screenshot shows the MindShift website, a resource for educators. At the top, it features the KQED News logo and navigation links for Topics, Programs & Blogs, Special Coverage, and Bay Curious. A 'Donate' button and social media icons are also present. The main heading is 'MindShift How we will learn.' Below this, there are sub-headings for Growth Mindset, Big Ideas, Teaching Strategies, Games and Learning, and About. The 'Big Ideas' section is highlighted, with a sub-heading 'The latest findings from experts in the field related to the future of learning.' A featured article titled 'Do Personalized Learning Programs Offer Authentic Choices?' is shown, with a small image of a person and a brief description. To the right, there is a sponsored advertisement for Bayer with the tagline 'Science For A Better Life' and another ad for 'Cloud Forests' from the San Francisco Botanical Garden.

The screenshot shows the Edutopia website, which is part of the George Lucas Educational Foundation. The header includes the Edutopia logo, navigation links for Browse Topics, Watch Videos, Join the Conversation, and About Us, and a search bar. The date 'October 5, 2015' and a trending topic 'Project-Based Learning and Gamification' are displayed. The main content area features a large image of two children walking down stairs, with the headline 'Homework vs. No Homework Is the Wrong Question' and a sub-headline 'Does your school have a homework policy?'. To the right of the article is a social sharing section with buttons for Facebook, Twitter, and Pinterest. Below the article, there are tabs for 'NEW STUFF' and 'POPULAR'. On the far right, there is an advertisement for a 'FREE DOWNLOAD Unit Planning Checklist' with a 'DOWNLOAD NOW!' button.
