

Once upon a time there was a terrifying dragon living near the city of Cracow.

The dragon terrorised the local people and ate them.

Oh
my God
! I' m scar ed!

One day the king promised a reward for killing the monster.

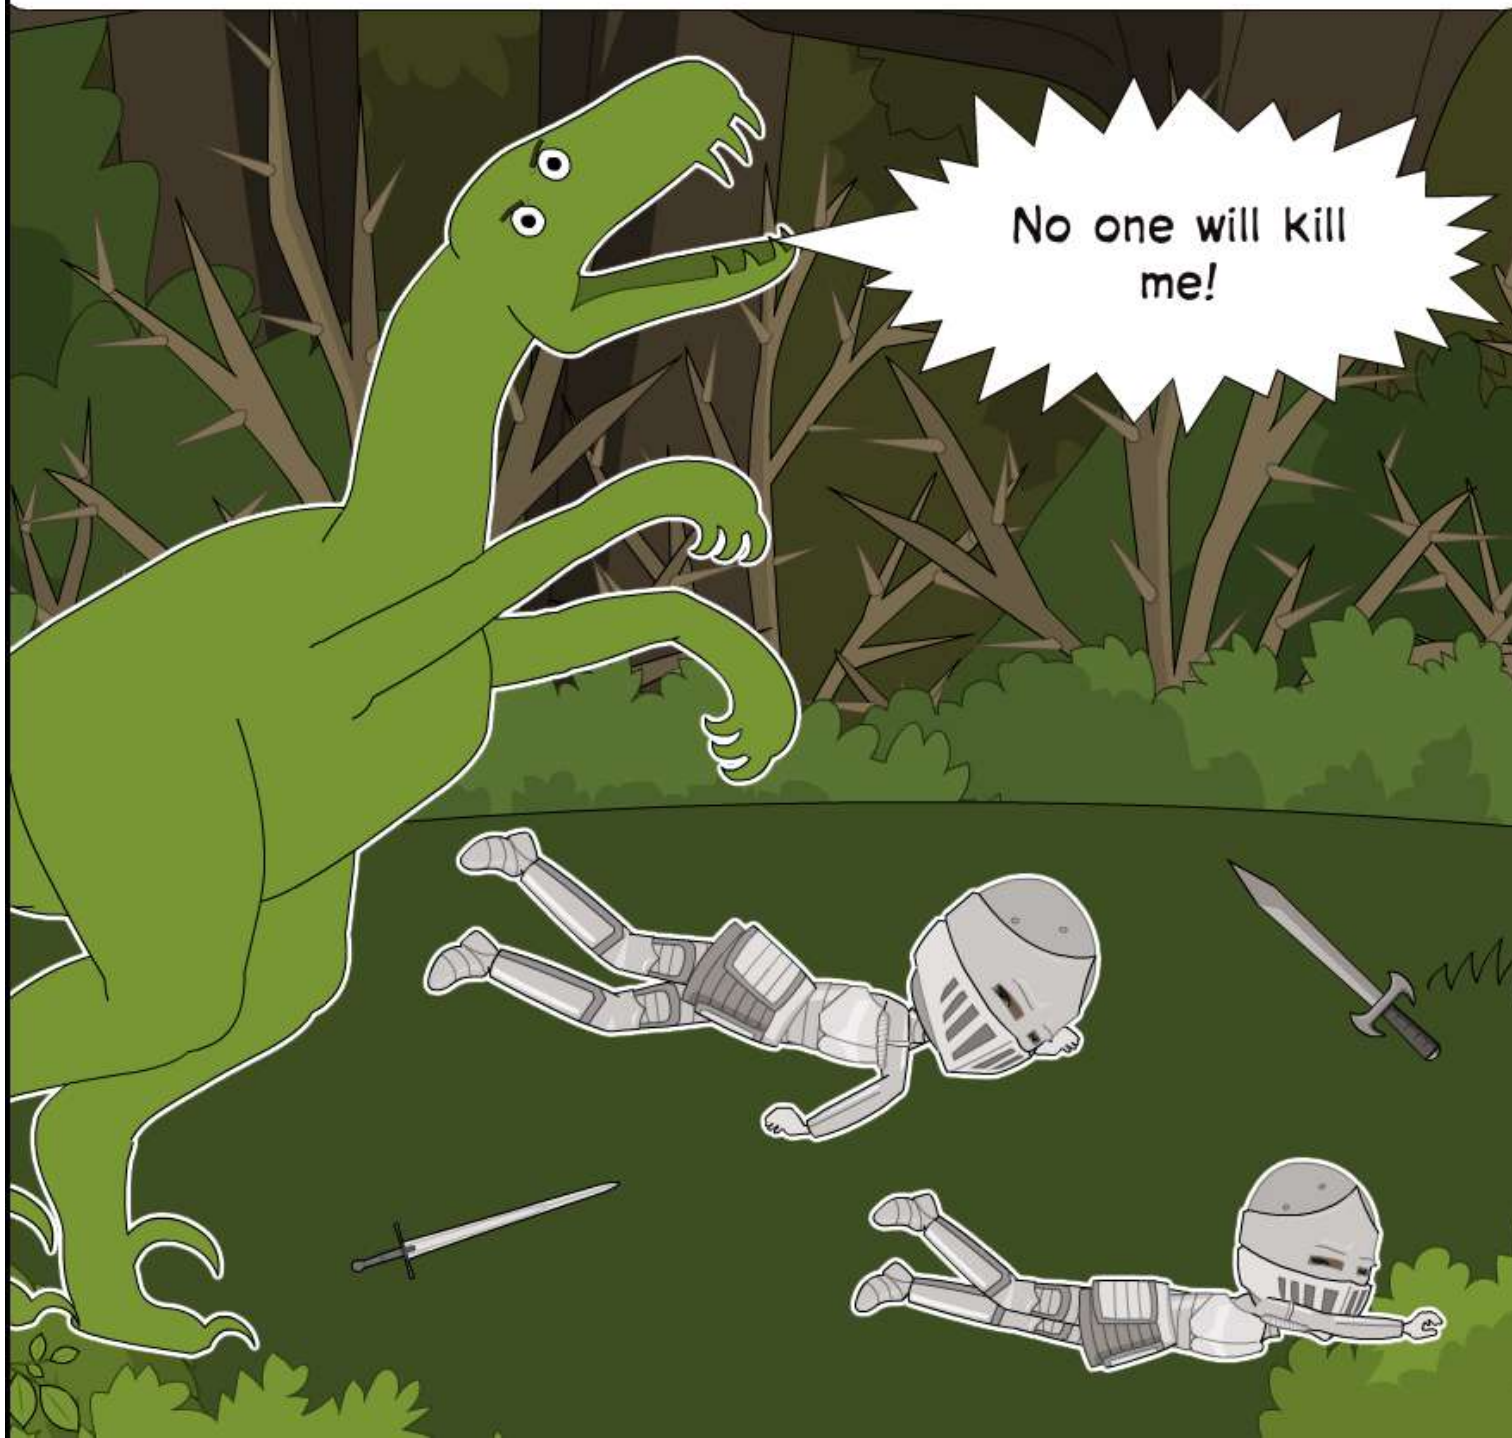

Who can kill the dragon?
The one who will kill this terrifying dragon will get a reward!

The prize was his daughter's hand.

This is the prize- the princess's love.

Many knights died trying to kill the monster.

This dragon is too powerful!

Soon after, a brave shoemaker said that he would defeat the creature.

I think I can do it.

I hope so..

He prepared a lamb filled with sulphur for the dragon to eat.

I will poison the dragon. My plan is perfect.

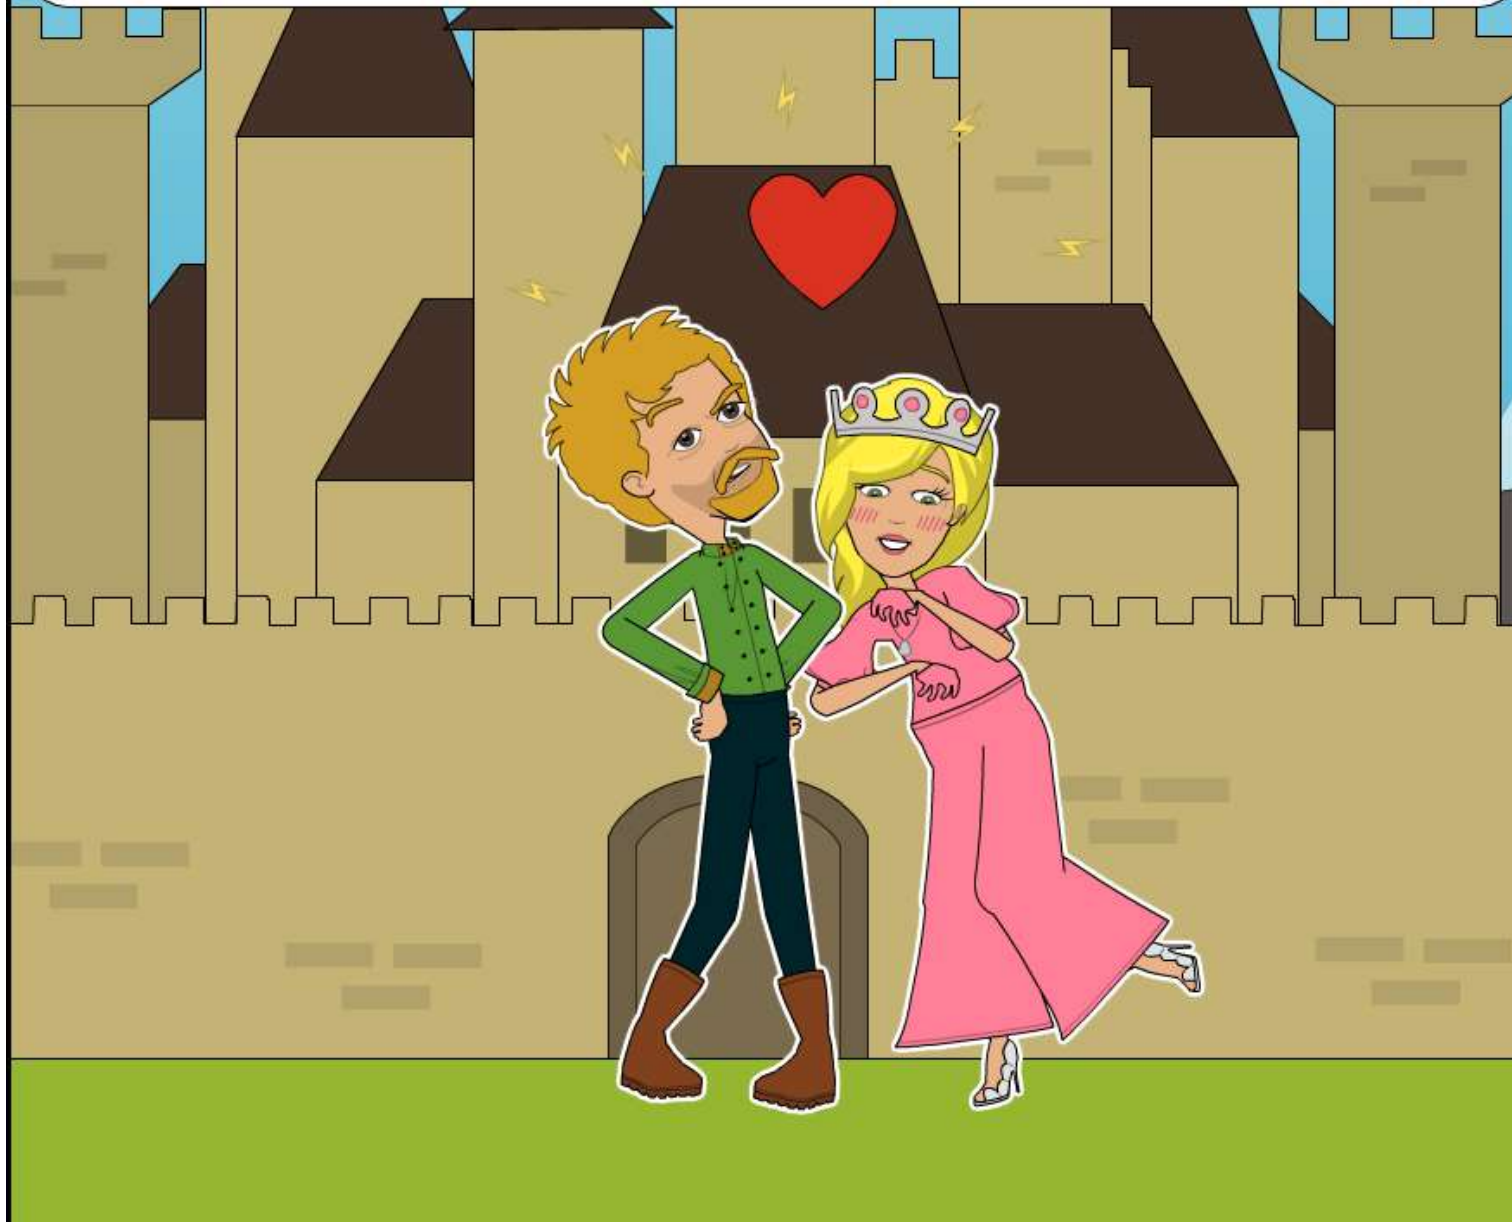

The monster ate the lamb...

... and died.

The cunning shoemaker became a prince and together with the princess they lived happily ever after.

I love you too!

I love you! You are so brave!
