

A long time ago a monster called Basilisk lived in a basement of a house in Warsaw.

People were afraid of it because when it looked at someone...

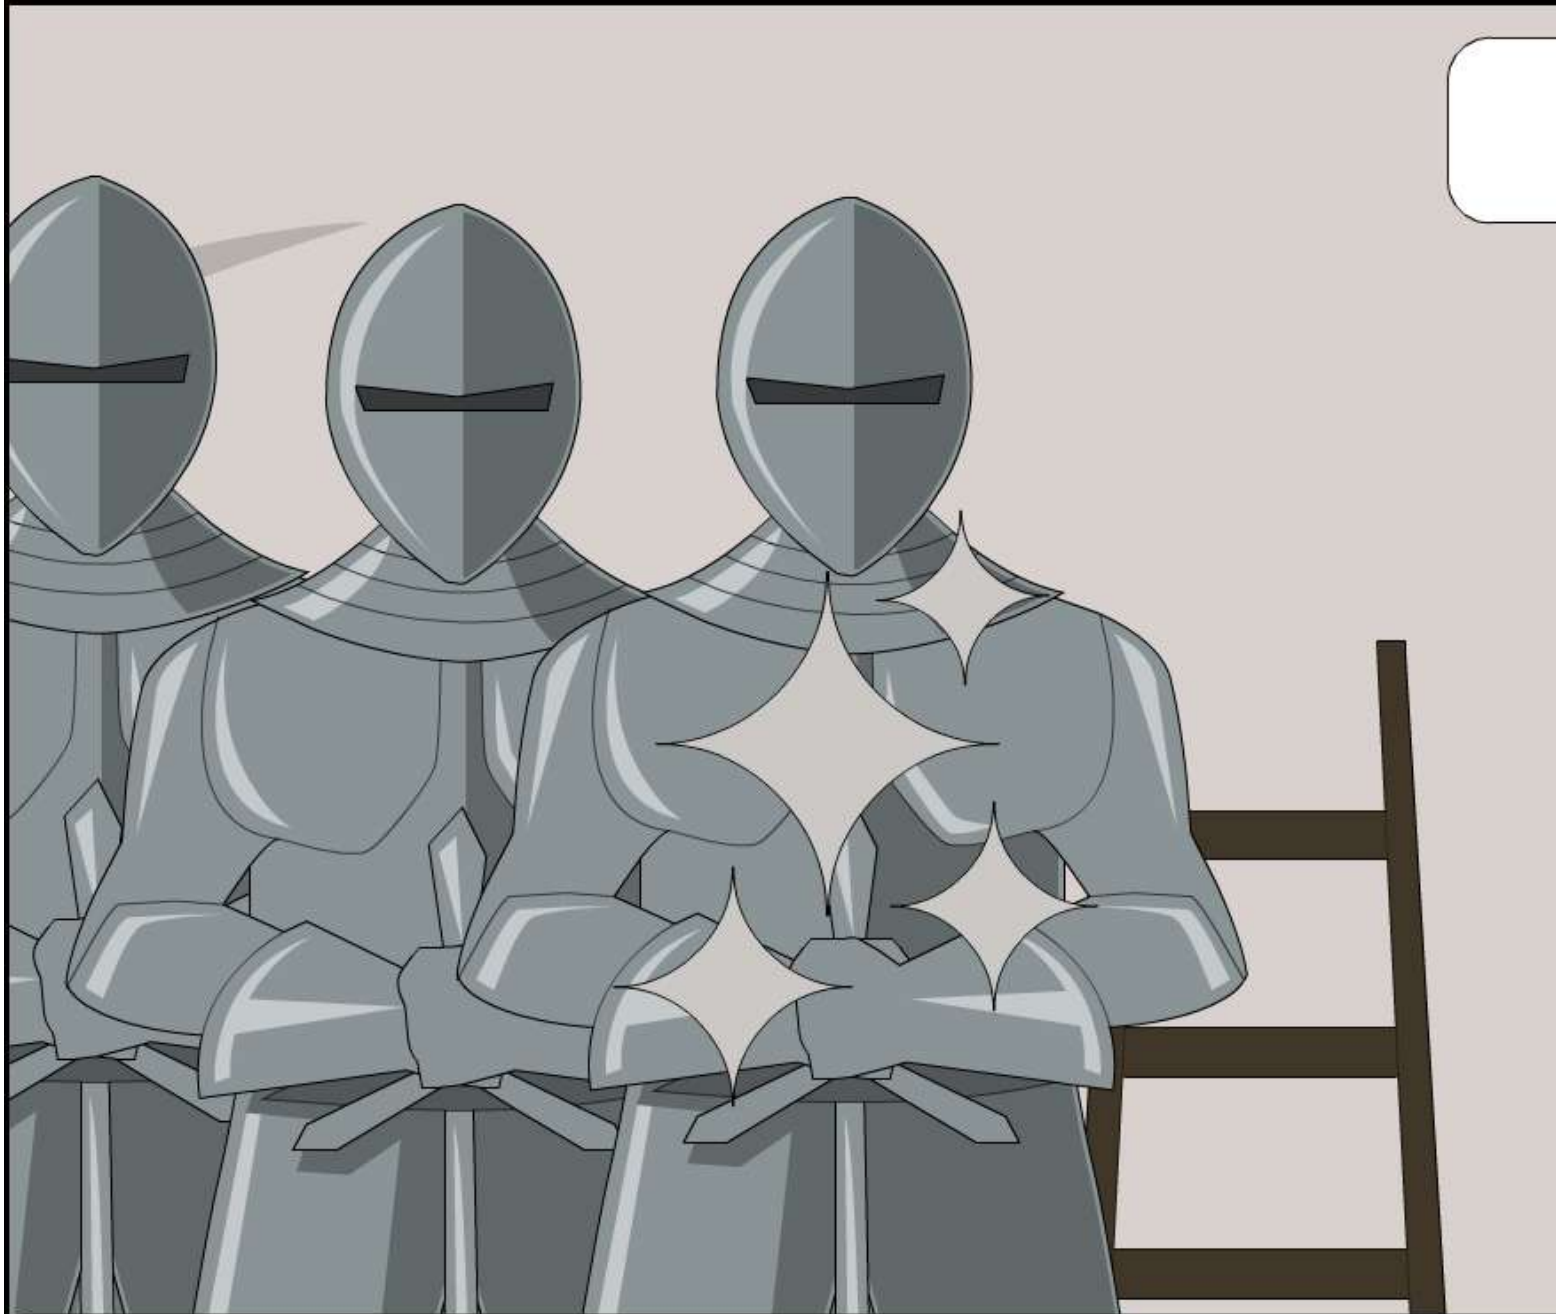

...the person changed into stone.

There was a man who was making armor and shields.

They were very good and well-polished, as shiny as a mirror.

He had two children, a boy and a girl.

They were very curious to see what was in the basement.

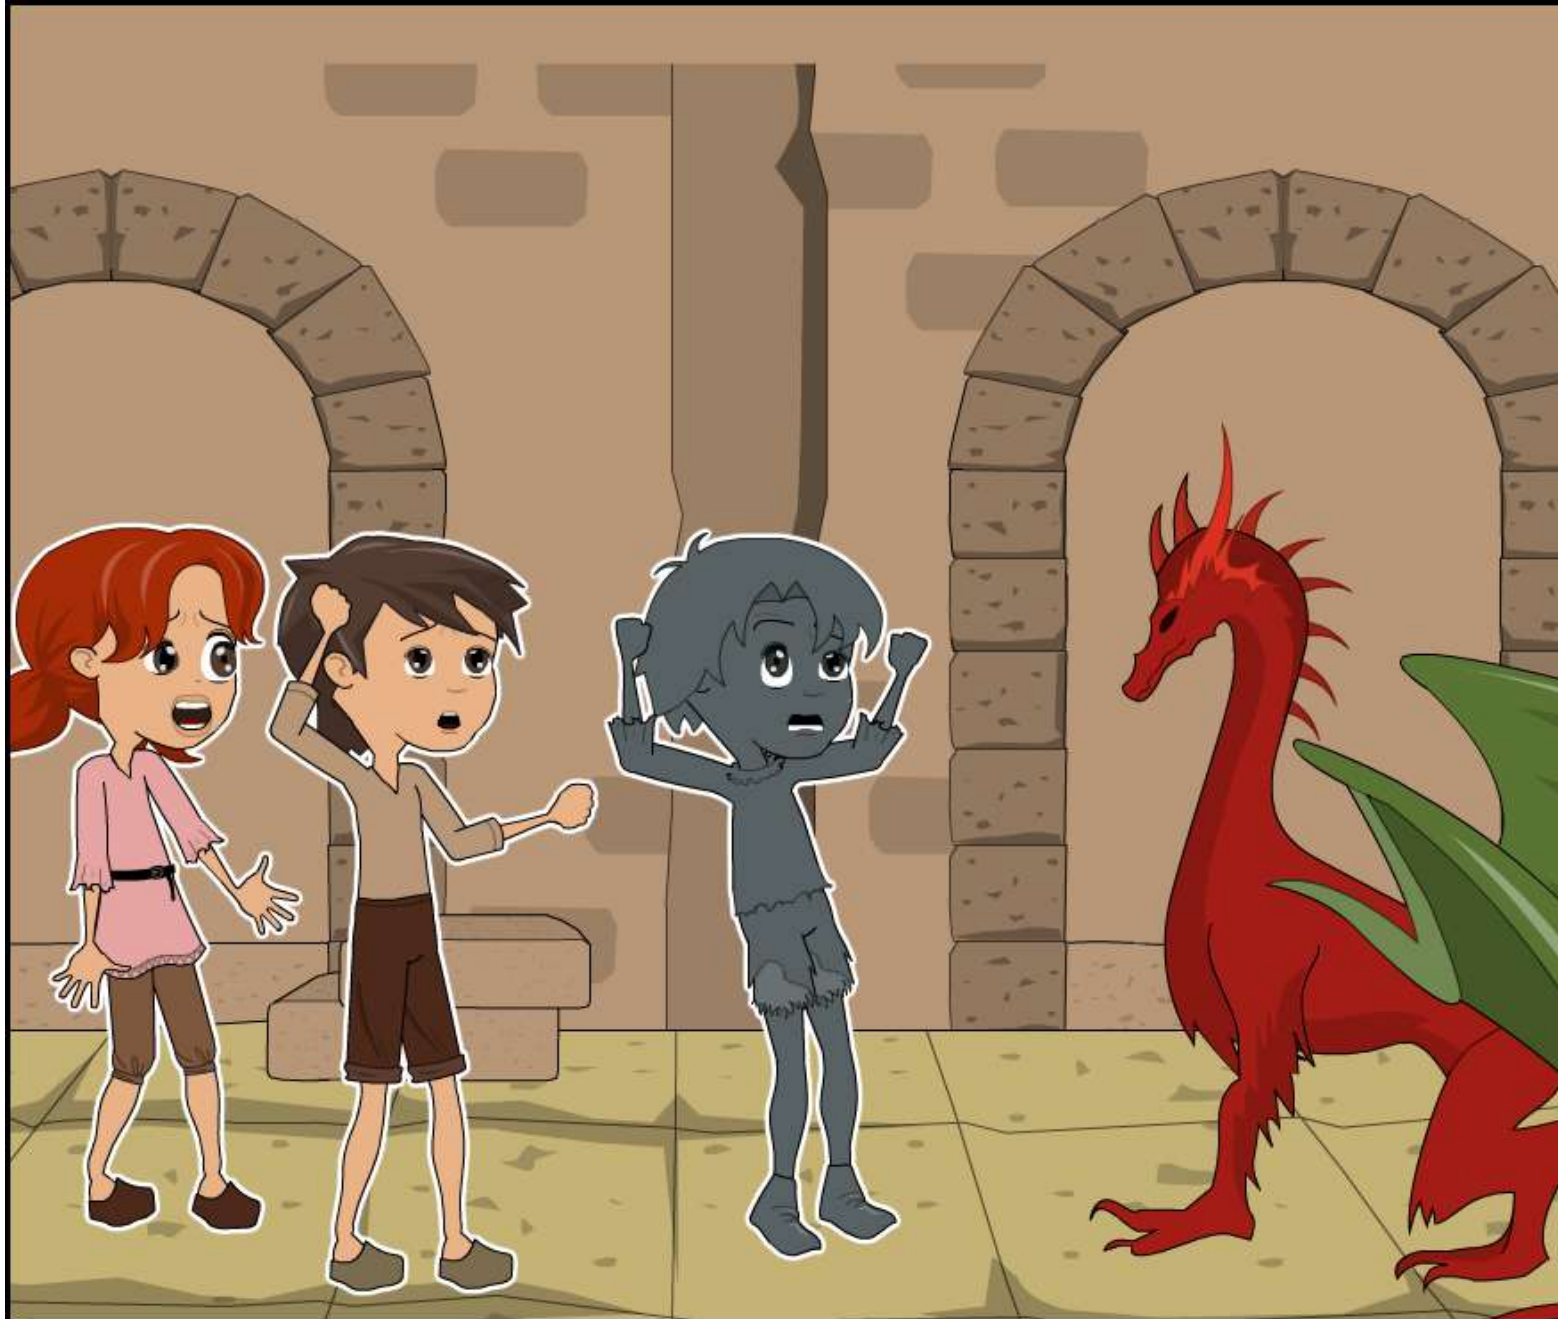

One day they went there with their friend.

Oh no! Let's get away from here!

In the cellar they saw a terrifying monster.

Unfortunately, the beast looked at their friend and it changed him into stone.

It's too late...
What can we do now?

I hope that our dad will find us...

Something wrong must have happened. I'm so worried.

When the children didn't come back home in the evening, their father knew, they were in danger.

He put on the shiniest armor, took a shield and
and...

...went to look for his children.

In the basement, he saw the monster.

The beast looked at him, saw its reflection in the shield...

...and changed into a stone figure.

His children were saved.

People in Warsaw were very happy and grateful.

Our hero!!!
