

Once upon a time there were three brothers:
Lech, Czech and Rus.

Lech was clever and pleasant

Czech was astute and slim.

And Rus was calm and silent.

One day, they were hunting but they couldn't find any animals.

WE HAVE TO FIND A NEW PLACE TO LIVE

YES, LET'S INFORM OUR LIEGES.

A few days later they set off.

They were travelling across fields..

forests...

and mountains.

One day, during the stop

My people are tired and I feel well in this place. We'll stay here.

Brothers said goodbye to Rus and went away.

After many days of journey they saw a big,
beautiful mountain.

You know me well, Lech. I like sun. If I settle on this mountain, I can be near it, so I will stay here.

OK.

Lech with his people were alone so they went on.

One week later he felt very sad.

What if I never find a good place to live?

Suddenly Lech saw a big white eagle in a tree

Then he looked around and saw rivers full of fish...

forests full of animals...

and fields full of fruit and vegetables.

We'll stay here.

This is how Lech founded his town - Gniezno.

And its sign is a white eagle on red background.

