

DARK TOURISM

BY: JESÚS DEL VALLE

In Úbeda it is a site called the towers house, it can sound that is a very nice place but it isnt, now a days is a musical school but years ago it was the house of a rich man.

He was married with a beautiful girl but he cheated on her and she got pissed off.

He left her in a room and left her there without exit because he had the key.

He could hear a lot of screamings and things so he chose to sandwich her there.

Now the side when she died is a officine but people afirm that they heared sacreamings and strange noises.

They found the body making a reforming and then they could see some humans rests

Now you can go and visit the zone because there are some pictures and scultures but the main function is the music school

I hope that you have enjoy
