What do you think could be improved in this kind of activities?

- Nothing went well was beautiful
- We need more free time to get to know eachother better.
- Less programmes, more free time.
- La the relationship with the other friends
- Trips and foods
- Imagination
- The organisation of journeys, sometimes they seemed too long
- The communication between the students and the teachers could be improve.
- This meeting was great and I loved it, however probably the activities of the meeting should be more organized in terms of the time.
- The places visited should be more interesting.
- Let's spend more time together, a week is a little
- the food and the week program
- To visit more tourist spots
- We could have had more activities in school instead of going out.
- More activities
- More interactive activities with the students
- Comunication
- The communication between teachers and students
- I think it would be difficult to improve
- The relationship between students and teachers

What mark would you give to...

What does building an European citizenship for you mean?

Meet different people

To socialize with others and get to know other cultures and become European

Meeting with new cultures.

I can get to know easier the other cultures.

Work together. Live together.

It means a lot because you can know new people and cultures

To be free without difference between European people!

Means contributing to the benefit of all citizens

To grow morally to people to understand what is right and wrong

Having the same opportunities

It is necessary to know the culture of the other countries

Every people is for me in the same class. For me European, African, Asian isn't different. Everybody is living in the same world. It must peace in this world.

I want to meet European people. They are interesting but i want be in this project again

A lot of exchange between each country

To do sustainable project in order to improve our quality of life

It's knowledge about other European countries and cultures, accept them and bring that to our life.

It's bring the European values to our daily and build our identity as a European citizen.

Creating new relationship between UE citizens

For me building a European citizen means create citizens educated with values like equality and show them that they can be what they want, just need to work hard and study a lot because education is the strongest weapon against extremists ideas, racism ...

A opportunity to meet new people

It means that we should embrace and accept all cultures and be all friends.

The integration between the difference boys

That all the countries of Europe join us in this project

Let us all speak the same language, have the same customs and rights, etc

If you want, you can write here a comment about these activities, this kind of project, ...

I love meeting new people and they were very kind.

I want to meet again all of the students. I miss them, and I hope we will meet again, and work together.

I had a interesting experience in Hungary and I made it new friends, but the food from school was not very good!

This experience is fantastic and incredible thank you at my teacher for this experience

This project must continue because the days I had been project is my best days

The best trip of my life

This kind of project improves many things and it changes your life...

This type of project is really a great experience, to exchange with other nationality and a good atmosphere. A trip to redo

Thank you very much for everything it was an unforgettable experiment with unforgettable persons!

I think it's really important to the teenagers that have the chance to experience this because this give us so much advantages and great memories and become an experience that we will never forget till the rest of our lives.

Thanks for everything, it was a pleasure to meet you, and I hope to see you soon, need more of them, asap

This projects must continue!

It was a fantastic experience

I have loved to have lived this experience, in which you learn new things. I wish I could repeat it again
